About KHCS

Ka'ahumanu Hou Christian School was founded in 1984 by Doctor James Marocco of First Assembly of God King's Cathedral in Maui, Hawaii.

Doctor Marocco wanted a school that would disciple young people to be Godly leaders. It was named after the first Christian queen of the Hawaiian Islands, Queen Ka'ahumanu. After she became a Christian, she mandated the education of all children in her kingdom, thus creating the first Christian schools in the islands.

We carry on this tradition by emphasizing not only academics but also discipleship. We want our students and graduates to be grounded in the Lord, ready to take on whatever He calls them to.

We have daily Bible classes, classroom prayers, weekly chapels, and a focus in all subjects on how God is working.

Mission Statement

Ka'ahumanu Hou Christian School is committed to:

"Changing Hearts To Renew The Mind" &
"Establishing lifelong Christians in order to develop a Heritage of Faith with servitude to the church, community, and others." Romans 12:2

Vision

Ka'ahumanu Hou Christian School will train students with God's word and challenge them to excel in a Christ centered academic environment. Our desire is to equip students to be an Influential Leader with Godly character to impact future generations.
